

Creating a Fundable Project

Learn how to structure your project, sell it effectively to funders and explain the difference it will make.

Who the course is for

For staff, volunteers or trustees in voluntary and community organisations who are new to project development and grant applications. It will also help those to want to improve their chances of securing funding for their projects.

Those attending should have completed HCF's Get Fit for Funding course (or equivalent)

Course content

Covers the key stages of project proposal writing with practical exercises, including:

- Evidencing the need for your project
- Structuring your project; identifying potential partners
- Creating a budget
- Explaining funders' jargon
- Monitoring & reporting to funders

Learning outcomes

By completing this course you will:

- Be able to put your idea, dream or vision into a structured format.
- Understand how to approach the key funders' questions so you can sell your project effectively
- Know how to measure and explain the difference your project will make
